

How to change the position of the bike arm around the rack frame

Atera

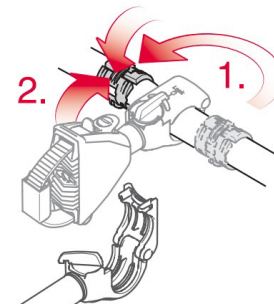

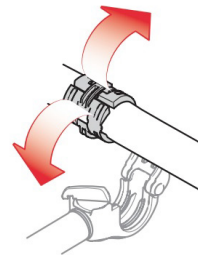

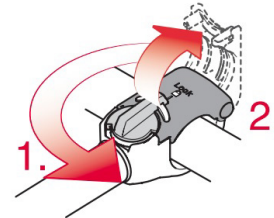

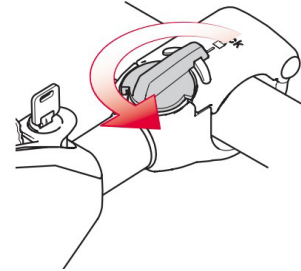

1

It is essential that you unlock and release the strap before moving the arm around the frame

2

Once the strap is released you can move the dial to release the arm from the frame

3

Once you have moved the arm to the new position, resecure it

